Title The UV Signs

Location The UV, Sacramento, Ca

Description These signs were created for the University Village, in Sacramento, Ca. The first sign, "The UV", illuminates during the evening with internal LED strip lights. The word "The" is made to look as though it is hovering in space creating a gravity defying feel. The second sign is created to express the flavor of its surrounding. The University Village is without a doubt a place where you can shop, dine and unwind. Both signs are created out of mild steel and palm sanded smooth for a clean modern feel.
