

Project Data Sheet

Title A Life's Ride

Location River Walk, West Sacramento, Ca

Description A Life's ride is a commemorative public art bench for Andrew Yokoyama, a lifelong West Sacramentan, a farmer, an enthusiastic bicyclist. Implements and tools from his Southport farm were used to fabricate this large scale bicycle. This piece is located on the West Sacramento River walk where many people can publicly interact with it and enjoy its fun design.

Date 2012

Medium reclaimed farm and bicycle implements

Dimensions 10'H x 12'W x 3'D

Commissioned by Commissioned and donated by the widow of a local well known West Sacramento Farmer, Andrew Yokoyama, in conjunction with the West Sacramento Parks and Recreation department.